HAYES ORDERED RESTORED TO RANK FOR THE GRILLING. The Commissioner's red-hot letter read as follows:

Chief Inspector Max Schmittberger.

There appears in this moraling's press statements in quotation in which Capt. Cornelius G. Rayes states in effect that, if he is put on the stand, he will tell a story that will cause the Commissioner to re-sign instantly. He also states in effect that he knows of wrongdo ings on the part of persons con-mected with the Police Department. It is further stated that he has evidence of wrongdoing on the part of a Police Captain, which he fur-nished the Police Commissioner, and on which the Commissioner failed to act.

You will order Capt. Hayes to report at once to your office. You will restore him to duty as a captain of police. You will direct him in writing to state to you in writ-ing whether he did or did not threaten the Commissioner, as alleged in the papers.

You will also direct him to state in writing all evidence of rascality of which he may be possessed, with regard to any and all members of the Police Department or persons connected therewith, as it to the desire of the department to take immediate action with reference to any information that he may have. It is essential that member of the department who may be guilty of any wrong-doing be immediately brought to

You will direct him also to state specifically what information, if any, he has regarding any captain of police whom he may allege to have been guilty of any wrongdoing, in order that they may be immediately suspended and brought to trial.

All these facts must be stated fully and clearly, and they will be given to the press for publication. On Capt. Hayes having com-
